Grant us O God, in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what you would us do, that the spirit of wisdom may save us from all false choices, and that in your light we may see light, and in your path may not stumble; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. (William Reed Huntingdon 1838-1909)

AROUND THE CIRCUIT

Travel to Rev Karl Rutledge's Ordination on 30 June

Karl Rutledge will be ordained at St Martin's church in the Bull Ring, Birmingham on 30 June at 4pm. Tickets for the Ordination Service are now sold out, but for those who have tickets, the Circuit is booking a coach for the trip to Birmingham.

If you would like to travel on the coach, you need to reserve a place. To do so please contact Michael Axton at the Circuit Office by email: circuitoffice@kingstoncircuit.org.uk; or phone: 020 8390 4598.

3Generate

This year 3Generate is from 22 - 24 November at Pontins, Southport and registration is now open. Ticket prices for children and young people (8-23 years old) will be £120 per person but, as usual, the Circuit will be offering to part-fund the cost. For more information please visit the "Our Work" section of the Methodist church website, or you can contact Nigel Spalding on 07814 190560. We also need people to attend the event as a Volunteer Leader – if you would like more information about this please contact Nigel.

Note that group registrations are only open until 7 June, so any church interested in a group booking needs to move quickly. It doesn't cost anything to register, and it doesn't commit a group to buying tickets.

Quarterly Preaching Plan

Please note the following changes to the published June to August Quarterly Plan:

Chessington 10am, 16th June: David Fullbrook in place of Tim Yu.

Surbiton Hill: 10am, 30th June: Tim Yu in place of David Fullbrook.
